

EU AI Act Compliance Report

Risk Level Summary

	Unacceptable	2 assets (29%)
	High	4 assets (57%)
	Low	1 asset (14%)

Detailed Analysis

cityCCTV-teepjbzazuqm4Confidence: 95%

Relevant Articles: Art 5 §1 d

Suggestions:

- Prohibit use of indiscriminate public surveillance AI in the EU
- Consider alternative, less intrusive monitoring methods
- Ensure compliance with fundamental rights and data protection laws

citycctvteepjbzazuqm4Confidence: 95%

Relevant Articles: Art 5 §1 d

Suggestions:

- Prohibit use in EU
- Indiscriminate facial tracking in public spaces is not permitted under the EU AI Act

loanAI-teepjbzazuqm4Confidence: 92%

Relevant Articles: Annex III §5(b), Art 6(2)

Suggestions:

- Ensure human oversight in credit decisions
- Integrate risk management and post-market monitoring with existing financial sector obligations
- Maintain comprehensive documentation and transparency
- Coordinate with national financial supervisory authorities for compliance and market surveillance

Relevant Articles: Annex III §5, Art 6(2)

Suggestions:

- Ensure human oversight in credit decisions
- Integrate risk management and post-market monitoring with existing financial sector obligations
- Maintain documentation and transparency as per Directive 2013/36/EU and relevant EU financial services law
- Coordinate with national financial supervisory authorities for compliance and market surveillance

Relevant Articles: Article 53, Annex XI, Annex XII, Article 13, Article 12

Suggestions:

- Ensure technical documentation and transparency as per Article 53 and Annex XI/XII
- Implement robust logging and record-keeping (Article 12)
- Provide clear instructions for use and transparency to deployers (Article 13)
- Assess and mitigate risks to fundamental rights, especially regarding employee monitoring
- Add human oversight and regular audits
- Consult with employee representatives and ensure compliance with national labour laws

Relevant Articles: Art 53, Art 12, Art 13

Suggestions:

- Ensure technical documentation and transparency as per Art 53 and Art 13
- Implement robust logging and record-keeping (Art 12)
- Assess for potential high-risk classification under Annex III (e.g., workplace monitoring)
- Add human oversight and clear information for employees
- Consult with national competent authorities for compliance

Relevant Articles: None specified

Suggestions:

- Monitor for future regulatory updates
- Ensure compliance with general EU AI principles